Landscape Structures Inc. Introduces Rhapsody™ Outdoor Musical Instruments

Collection of music products welcomes individuals of all ages and abilities

Delano, Minn. (Feb. 18, 2016) — Landscape Structures Inc., a Delano, Minn.-based commercial playground equipment manufacturer, has introduced Rhapsody™ Outdoor Musical Instruments. These new musical instruments offer a unique way for kids and adults alike to be creative and express themselves both physically and emotionally. This multigenerational activity encourages people of all ages and abilities to share their musical creativity and knowledge with one another.

The playful and elegant collection of Rhapsody Outdoor Musical Instruments lends itself to any environment—playgrounds, community centers, schools, senior centers and other public spaces. The collection of chimes, metallophones and drums can be placed together for jamming, or spread about individually. The following Rhapsody Outdoor Musical Instruments welcome individuals of all ages and abilities to explore the power of music:

- Grandioso™ Chimes Accommodating both solo and ensemble performances, these chimes soar two full octaves in a major key.
- Vivo™ Metallophone 15 anodized aluminum tubes make up the lush notes on this captivating instrument.
- Animato™ Metallophone Flat bars made from anodized aluminum make up 15 major notes on this instrument.
- Drums High-quality drum skins are made from polycarbonate, sanded on the underside for a professional finish to stand up to the rigors of play and temperature extremes; choose from the Kundu Drum, Kettle Drum or Goblet Drum.
